Formatting guidelines for submitted papers

All submitted papers should include the following sections

- ◆ Title of the paper
- ◆ Author(s) details – Please note: Author details should not be included in the submitted article, and are only required when completing relevant sections of the online submission form.
 - +
 - ◆ Abstract of the paper
 - ◆ Keywords
 - ◆ Journal of Economic Literature (JEL) codes
 - ◆ Introduction, Research question
 - ◆ Literature review
 - ◆ Materials and/or methods
 - ◆ Discussion of main findings and their relation to the reviewed literature
 - ◆ Conclusion
 - ◆ References
- ◆ Author contributions (in case of multiple authors)

Further formatting details

- ◆ An original article would normally consist of 4,500-7,000 words
- ◆ Authors are encouraged not to use any special text formatting at all
- ◆ The text should be single-spaced, using Times New Roman 12-point font, no blank lines between paragraphs, no pagination
- ◆ The abstract should be 70-150 words long, in a single paragraph
- ◆ For library indexing and on-line searching you are encouraged to provide up to 5 keywords, separating them with semicolons (e.g. apple; pear; grapes)
- ◆ TMP uses the APA 7.0 format for in-text citations and references lists. Please, use a citation tool or read the detailed description of this style by following this link: <https://bit.ly/APA70description>
- ◆ Figures and tables are to be inserted in the text, and are numbered consecutively; sources are also to be provided; when preparing the figures please consider that the final copy will be published in black and white format
- ◆ Please do not use footnotes; you can include all peripheral remarks in the text within parentheses, or, if you absolutely need notes, please use endnotes
- ◆ Only black and white photographs can be published in the proceedings
- ◆ References to original sources for cited material is to be listed together at the end of the paper; the list of references shall be arranged in alphabetical order
 - ◆ Authors should check if a DOI is available for the cited work (using <http://search.crossref.org/>); if yes, it should be put in the references in the following format: <https://doi.org/xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx>
 - ◆ Authors should check if an URL is available for the cited work; if yes, it should be added to the item in the references list
 - ◆ The list of references may only contain items cited in the text; an English translation of the title of non-English papers in the references must be added
- ◆ In case of multiple authors please specify the contribution of each author by using the following 5 categories, and also give an estimate about the share of work (e.g. Author1 55%; Author2 45%)
 - ◆ Possible contribution categories: Conceived and designed the study; Collected the data; Performed the analysis; Wrote the paper; Other (pls., specify)
- ◆ You may use an Appendix (no longer than 5 pages); this section should come after the References
